THE ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

THANKSGIVING... A time to express our gratitude. Studies have shown that expressing gratitude enriches our lives and makes us happier. We would like to express our gratitude to you for your support over these years. There are many things for which we are grateful--we have had a nice Fall. We've enjoyed a nice season of Major League Baseball. People are healthier this year than last.

Take a moment to think about what you are thankful for and take the time to jot them down.

Here at Great Harvest, we want to convey our thanks to each and every one of you. We love our customers and we value you as our friends. Thank you for breaking bread with us!

Speaking of Thanksgiving . . .

Please check the backside of the schedule so that you can plan your Thanksgiving shopping list. We are already taking orders and they can be picked up, starting on Monday, Nov. 22.

You will especially want to place orders for:

- _____ 9" pies--Pumpkin, Apple or Cherry
- _____ Kolache
- _____ Houska
- _____ Rolls: White, Wheat, Potato, Other
- _____ Pumpkin-Cream Cheese Rollups
- _____ Stuffing Bread
- _____ Dried bread cubes (for stuffing)
- _____ Anything else listed on the reverse

November Sandwich of the Month

"The Pilgrim" has piles of slow roasted turkey with a tangy cranberry sauce and a savory cream cheese spread. It is garnished with lettuce and tomato and you choose the bread!

We can cater your holiday parties.

Call 402-390-9988 and let us help you feed your friends and family.

And, yes, the bakeries are still for sale.

Call Dennis, (402) 390-9988, or Greg at the Great Harvest Franchising Office, (203) 233-8006 for more information.

You may have noticed . . .

That we have relocated our West Omaha bakery. We hope that those of you who enjoyed our West Omaha location will find that you can be served just as deliciously in Rockbrook as you were at our West bakery. We apologize for the inconvenience to you.

Dennis & Marian Cihacek, Owners
